Starting Photograph

What do you see?

The world beyond what we see is one with boundless possibilities.

The world beyond the lens may be more than what we see at first glance.

Capture the story with your imagination and tell us what you see through the lens and the possibilities beyond it.

Given the starting photograph, develop your story through a series of 2-5 photographs with your team. Will your story portray how photography impacts lives? Or will it show different perspectives or concepts? Or is there a tale behind the first frame? There are simply limitless possibilities in how you can interpret the photograph! Dare to go wild and let your imagination soar. Continue the story, make it grow. Invoke our senses and bring us into the story. After all, it's your Photo Story!
